Strengthening Investor Trust: Board Accountability Across Risk, Capital and Disclosure

Strong corporate governance enables companies to manage risk, adapt to change, and create long-term value. Against a backdrop of geopolitical uncertainty, market volatility, supply-chain disruptions, and evolving regulation, this year's Corporate Governance Conference will explore how effective governance can strengthen investor trust and organisational resilience.

Conference Highlights

- AI Agents and Digital Workers: Board Accountability, Registration and Investor Disclosure
- From Climate Disclosure to Nature-Linked Transition Credibility: The Board's Role in Sustainable Value Creation
- Geopolitical Shock Preparedness
- Capital Allocation Under Uncertainty: Investment, M&A and Value Protection

Governance, Risk and Value – What Matters Beyond Board Structure

Investors today need to look beyond corporate jargon and understand what good governance looks like in practice. This session equips everyday investors to assess how boards manage risk, build resilience, allocate capital, and navigate climate and nature-related challenges, so they can spot warning signs and ask better questions.

23 October, Friday • 15:30 – 16:30 (SGT) • Virtual (Zoom Webinar) • Complimentary

Regulatory Acceleration

Regulation is moving faster than many corporate planning cycles. For companies operating across multiple markets, anticipating regulatory change is increasingly critical to long-term resilience and competitiveness. Examine what regulatory foresight looks like in practice, and how boards can turn regulatory change from a compliance challenge into a strategic advantage.
